

Scholars name: Tulong Dunong Program (TDP)

Provider: UniFAST

Financial Benefits: Eligible grantees typically receive Php 7,500 per semester (or up to Php 15,000 per academic year). This amount is intended to help cover tuition and cost-of-living or daily allowances

Eligibility Criteria

To qualify for the TDP, you must generally meet the following conditions:

- Citizenship: Must be a Filipino citizen.
- Education Level: Must be officially enrolled in any curriculum year level in a CHED-recognized program.
- Income Bracket: Your parents' or guardian's combined annual income must usually not exceed Php 50,000.
- Restrictions: You cannot concurrently be a beneficiary of another government scholarship grant (like TES or certain ODSPs)

Background: The Tulong Dunong Program (TDP) is a government-funded educational grant under the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and UniFAST. It provides financial assistance to financially disadvantaged Filipino undergraduate learners to help shoulder the partial cost of tuition and education-related expenses.
